Arrival Instructions:

Travel arrangements

We recommend students travel to Cleveland Hopkins Airport as it is the nearest airport to Cedar Point. Options for arrival to the park from either Cleveland or another airport, may include transportation by train or bus. Students may contact Amtrak www.amtrak.com or Greyhound www.greyhound.com directly to make a reservation and check fares. As a reminder, Cedar Point is unable to provide transportation so students should have sufficient funds to cover meals and unforeseen travel expenses. Once at Sandusky's Amtrak or Greyhound station, there is a list of taxi numbers to call to get to the park. Students should request the taxi service bring them to Cedar Point's housing campus for a room assignment. The address 2075 1st Street Sandusky, Ohio.

Days and times to arrive

Associate Housing is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to accommodate arrivals at all hours of the day or night. Since flight costs and schedules can fluctuate, students may arrive any day of the week and check in within 72 hours of the start of their DS 2019. After receiving a room assignment, students will be instructed to attend a First Day of Work (FDOW) session at the Cedar Point Recruiting Center located directly across the street from Cedar Point's housing campus.

Transportation in the area

With a valid Cedar Point ID, associates can access the Sandusky Transit System free of charge for transportation to and from the Associate Housing Campus, as well as personal use for shopping, dining, and entertainment. Plus Cedar Point's own bus will provide transportation from associate housing to the park. Since Sandusky is mostly rural and walking or bicycling can be challenging (limited sidewalks & paths are in place) our bus system is the safest mode of transportation. A digital route map can be viewed on the Associate Life Portal or a printed copy can be picked up at Human Resources & the Housing Office.
